The Smith Family

Values are the quiet influencers of your decisions. They help you recognize what's important to you and how things should be done. You have identified the following Values which we will honor as we make important decisions together:

Family

To have a happy, loving family

Where does this show up in your life?

Strong bond with 2 children, Nathan and Meredith. Annual vacations with family. Lynne left her job at the hospital to raise the children.

Faith

Devotion and dedication to a set of a beliefs

Where does this show up in your life?

Active members in the church, annual mission trip.

Work

Fulfillment of a duty to achieve a purpose

Where does this show up in your life?

Success has come from hard work. Joe has been CEO for many years now. Lynne paid her way through college. Nathan and Meredith know the value of a dollar.

Giving

Making monetary or time donations to benefit others

Where does this show up in your life?

Actively donate time and expertise. Joe is on the board of trustees at Habitat for Humanity and Lynne volunteers there and helps with the fundraising efforts.

Education

Pursuing intellectual endeavors and gaining knowledge

Where does this show up in your life?

Both Joe and Lynne attended college. Joe has his MBA and Lynne is taking adult education classes. Funded Nathan and Meredith's educations and are interested in setting up a college fund for future grandchildren.
